

Ghanaian Pharmacists Association

Partners for better health

GPhA 2ND ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING (AGM)

Continuing Pharmacy Education Program

Date: SAT 06/15/2019

Time: 1000am to 12:00 pm

Location:

Double Tree by Hilton, McLean Tysons, 1960 Chain Bridge Rd, McLean, VA

Topics:

- When your last resort fails - Clinical Approaches to the Management of Clozapine Resistant Schizophrenia.
Time : 10 – 11 am

Objectives

1. Understand the basic therapeutics of schizophrenia spectrum disorders
2. Understand clinical approaches for the treatment of schizophrenia.
3. Identify factors associated with patients with treatment resistant and clozapine resistant
4. Apply clinical pearls to effectively treat and manage patients with clozapine-resistant schizophrenia.

Faculty: Prof. Akua Amoako-Tuffour, BscPharm, RPh

- Pharmacy Practice in the Clinical Pharmacogenomics (Precision Medicine) Era
Time : 11 - 12pm

Objectives

1. Describe the evolution of pharmacy practice and the roles of pharmacists.
2. Explore the potential clinical benefits of pharmacogenomics using patient case examples.
3. Name resources to facilitate personal and professional genomics education
4. Identify resources available to facilitate clinical adoption of pharmacogenomics

Faculty: Aniwaa Owusu Obeng, PharmD

Fee: N/A

Howard University College of Pharmacy, (COP) is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE) as a provider of continuing pharmacy education. This program meets ACPE criteria for 2 contact hour (0.2 CEU). Credit will be awarded through the CPE Monitor, within 3-4 weeks of the meeting to those who successfully complete the program.